The California Electricity Crisis has resulted in an avalanche of opportunity for the Center for the Advancement of Energy Markets (CAEM) to provide its views on energy restructuring. Below you will find links to some of our recent documents.

In May, CAEM issued an update to the RED Index 2001 that now includes the 13 provinces and territories of Canada. The RED Index is a scorecard on the progress states are making in electricity restructuring. RED Index Update for Canada. USA Today did a full page spread using CAEM's RED Index to give a summary of activity in the top 25 states. USA Today Article. The Governor of Pennsylvania included the RED Index Rank of Pennsylvania in his State-of-the-State Address. Pennsylvania Governor The NY PSC issued a Press Release on the RED Index. NY Commission

CAEM is pleased to announce the formation of a public-private sector project called the Distributed Energy Task Force. At the request of important members of Congress, CAEM will be assessing opportunities for promotion of distributed energy technologies and matching those opportunities with policy instruments, i.e., tax incentives, funds for R&D etc. For a copy of the project description and participation information, email a request to jwimberly@caem.org.

In February, CAEM sponsored a meeting of the newly formed Leadership Council on Energy Restructuring, an umbrella group of industry executives and public sector officials who support the development of a coherent strategy on energy restructuring. Leadership Council Document

In April, CAEM filed comments with the FTC on the proceeding that was initiated at the request of House Energy and Commerce Committee Chairman Billy Tauzin on the impact of States restructuring. CAEM FTC Comments

In March, CAEM held its first meeting of the DISCO of the Future Forum. We have posted several documents from that Forum. DISCO Forum Documents

Last Sunday, the Philadelphia Inquirer published the views of CAEM on President Bush's Energy Plan. Philadelphia Inquirer Article

In January, CAEM appeared on CNN to discuss the California Crisis. CNN Link
