

Is there anything we can tell them about the rates they should expect from the utility? I think that will be the biggest concern and we can reduce backlash if we can provide them some information.

Peggy Mahoney@EES

05/22/2001 06:37 PM

To: Steven J Kean/NA/Enron@Enron, Mark Palmer/Corp/Enron@ENRON, Karen Denne/Corp/Enron@ENRON, Max Eberts/HOU/EES@EES, Elizabeth Ivers/Enron@EnronXGate, Mark Koenig/Enron@EnronXGate, Paula Rieker/Enron@EnronXGate, Richard Shapiro/NA/Enron@Enron, James D Steffes/NA/Enron@Enron, Marty Sunde/HOU/EES@EES, Evan Hughes/HOU/EES@EES, Elizabeth Tilney/HOU/EES@EES, Diann Huddleson/HOU/EES@EES, Janet R Dietrich/HOU/EES@EES, Dan Leff/HOU/EES@EES, David W Delainey/HOU/EES@EES, Don Black/HOU/EES@EES, Mark S Muller/HOU/EES@EES, Kenneth Lay/Enron@EnronXGate, Vicki Sharp/HOU/EES@EES

cc:

Subject: Letter to residential customers

Attached is a draft of the letter we'd like to send to our 16,000 residential customers on Friday. Please review and let me know your comments by 12 noon on Wednesday.