

I'll give Michelle a call. I assume she will remain as the Enron contact for NEPCO?

> -----Original Message-----

> From: B-David Lund

> Sent: Thursday, October 04, 2001 5:57 PM

> To: B-Mike Indivero

> Cc: B-Galen Torneby; B-Bob Black; B-John Gillis; 'Cash, Michelle'

> Subject: RE: lake worth project

>

> Mike,

> I know of no hold up here. I spoke to Michelle Cash and she had not > withheld or said different to retaining this counsel. I would suggest > that you call Michelle (713-853-6401) anytime you have a concern with > regard to the progress of any labor and employment matter handled by > outside or inside counsel. And if Stublely is concerned about who he would > like to work with in Florida, he is equally able to call Michelle and > discuss it.

>

> As for a review of the training on union avoidance by Ogletree Deakins, by > copy to Michelle, I'll ask for her input here.

>

> I saw the correspondence from Mr. Fitzgerald regarding his meeting with > the Mayor of Lake Worth. I interpret this as a public official saying > what is expected, neither favoring the picketers or us, just saying he > will up-hold the law. We appreciate that.

>

> David H. Lund, Jr.

> Assistant General Counsel

> National Energy Production Corporation

> 11831 North Creek Parkway N.

> Bothell, WA 98011

> 425-415-3138

> Fax: 425-415-3032

> David.Lund@nepco.com or davidlu@nepco.com

>

> -----Original Message-----

> From: B-Mike Indivero

> Sent: Wednesday, October 03, 2001 2:28 PM

> To: B-David Lund

> Cc: B-Galen Torneby; B-Bob Black; B-John Gillis

> Subject: FW: lake worth project

>

> David...fyi...thought this would have been resolved by > now...does our movement over to egs change the counsel we work with within

> Enron?...hate to see us not have local counsel ready to go if/when > needed...setting this up is a minimal cost item...(by the way staff > training for union avoidance and preventing harassment conducted by odnss > is set up for 11/6)...suggestions/thoughts...let me know...thanks...Mike

>

> -----Original Message-----

> From: Stubley, Mark [mailto:StubleMM@odnss.com]

> Sent: Wednesday, October 03, 2001 12:36 PM

> To: 'Mike.Indivero@nepco.com'

> Subject: RE: lake worth project

>

>

> I forwarded our recommendation for local counsel to Michelle > indicated that Enron might want to use another firm. In the > meantime, we > will continue to use Cole Fitzgerald. On September 24, I > copied you (as > well as Michelle Cash and David Lund) on Cole's > correspondence concerning > his meeting with the mayor of Lake Worth. So, his > connections should prove > helpful.

> Cash. She

>

> Lund has provided me a copy of NEPCO's subcontract. Our > review and comments

> should be complete by Friday.

>

> We conducted the quick, over-the-phone training for the > management team at > Lake Worth approximately two weeks ago. We agreed to > conduct on-site

> training when more of the project management team is present > at the site. No > specific time is scheduled.

>

> We have not received a plat for the project. We have not > determined the gate

> setup. We have determined, however, that all construction > traffic and > deliveries would use the southern gate, not the main gate to > the facility.

>

>

>

> -----Original Message-----

> From: Mike.Indivero@nepco.com

> [mailto:Mike.Indivero@nepco.com]

> Sent: Wednesday, October 03, 2001 2:17 PM

> To: mark.stubley@odnss.com

> Cc: Galen.Torneby@nepco.com; Bob.Black@nepco.com;

> Gloria.Rivas@nepco.com; Mike.Croall@nepco.com;

> rick.johnson@enron.com

> Subject: lake worth project

- >
- >
- > mark...where are with possibly of obtaining local counsel
- > for the lake worth
- > project?..have we reviewed the fence/gate issue and come to
- > some
- > conclusions?...also what about the training we discussed?...
- > pls let me know
- > ..thanks...mike