

Below is the revised version of the Crude Oil Agreement, with changes from the one you probably saw this morning. Alan Aronowitz thought (and I concur) that since we don't really have liquidated damages we should take that language out of the last section.

I'll send the proposed Gas Agreement, marked from the Oil one, shortly.

Subject: Crude Oil Agreement

Attached is a revised document showing changes received from Teresa Bushman and Joan Quick, as well as a special termination agreement agreed to with the Banks in a conference call yesterday. At Nora's instruction I am sending a clean version of this document to the Banks and their counsel.
