

As outlined in Mark Haedicke's voicemail to you, I have attached a draft response to Long Island Power's letter. We are attempting to obtain a release from LIPA of any claim related to the terminated transaction. As a result, I would recommend that we hold off sending this letter until the release has been negotiated, which should be by Thursday, March 15th. Please call me if you have any questions.