

I agree with Bill's additions, with the exception of the sentence on DWR being terribly misguided and therefore no one should have to pay the costs of going 100% to long contracts. Not sure who else we recommend pay for DWR power besides customers.

I've attached the AReM letter in case you haven't seen it.....they go on quite a rant.

Dot

William Booth wrote:

> Dorothy -- Attached is a another version of the letter that takes a little > different approach. What do you think? I worried that your first letter > looks a little like an invitation to pile on the exit fees, of all types and > in any magnitude. I think we need to attack the premise that any DA causes > an increase in DWR costs for other customers. Bill
>
> -----Original Message-----
> From: Dorothy Rothrock [mailto:drothrock@cmta.net]
> Sent: Monday, October 22, 2001 1:35 PM
> To: wbooth@booth-law.com; cra@calretailers.com; ek@a-klaw.com; > mikahl@ka-pow.com; djsmith@s-k-w.com; dhunter@s-k-w.com; Derek Naten;
> 'Dominic DiMare'
> Cc: Dasovich, Jeff; Evelyn Elsesser; Loren Kaye
> Subject: Reponse to Angelides
>
> Wanna sign onto this letter to Loretta? Any suggestions? We could make it a > CEA thing.
>
> (I am copying Jeff D. as a courtesy...I think we need this to be just a > customer deal).
>
> Dot
> 498-3319
>
> This e-mail is intended solely for use of the individual to whom it is > addressed and may contain information that is privileged, confidential or > otherwise exempt from disclosure under applicable law. If the reader of > this e-mail is not the intended recipient or the employee or agent > responsible for delivering this message to the intended recipient, you are > hereby notified that any dissemination, distribution, or copying of this > communication is strictly prohibited. If you have received this > communication in error, please immediately notify us by replying to the > original sender of this note. Thank You.
>
>
> -----
> Name: Response to Angelides.doc
> Response to Angelides.doc Type: Winword File (application/msword)

> Encoding: base64